EIGHTY-NINE DELEGATES

Mostly From Southern States Will Be Dropped From Next Republican National Convention.

New York, Oct. 25.—A bitter fight waged since 1880 to reduce the representation of Southern States in Republican National Conventions has been won. Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the Republican National Committee, announced today that call for the convention of 1916 would be on the new basis, which reduces the number of delegates by eighty-nine. Most of this loss falls on the South.

The plan proposed at the annual meeting of the National Committee in Washington last December was made effective, Mr. Hilles said, through its ratification by conventions in States which cast a majority of votes in present electoral college, a condition to its adoption stipulated by the committee.
Every state convention held since last December assented to the plan except Texas, which rejected it. The States which adopted it cast 290 of the total of 531 votes in the electoral college, or twenty-four more than a majority. Approval was given by conventions in Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont, Washington and West Virginia.

In the next National Convention the delegation of Alabama will be reduced by eight, Arkansas by three, Florida by four, Georgia eleven, Louisiana eight, Mississippi eight, New York two, North Carolina three, South Carolina seven, Texas sixteen, Virginia eight, Hawaii four, Porto Rico two and Philippine Islands two.

"The plan," said Chairman Hilles, "will eliminate conflicts between the rules of the party and the laws of several States, and will reduce the number of contesting delegations. The system of unequal numerical representation, against which many States constantly contended, was the legacy of years and of political custom, and therefore not in any way identified with the convention of 1912."

A NURSE TAKES DOCTOR'S ADVICE

And is Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Euphemia, Ohio.—"Because of total ignorance of how to care for myself when verging into womanhood, and from taking cold when going to school, I suffered from a displacement, and each month I had severe pains and nausea which always meant a lay-off from work for two to four days from the time I was 16 years old.

"I went to Kansas to live with my sister and while there a doctor told me of the Pinkham remedies but I did not use them then as my faith in patent medicines was limited. After my sister died I came home to Ohio to live and that has been my home for the last 18 years.

"The Change of Life came when I was 47 years old and about this time I saw my physical condition plainly described in one of your advertisements. Then I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot tell you or any one the relief it gave me in the first three months. It put me right where I need not lay off every month and during the last 18 years I have not paid out two dollars to a doctor, and have been blessed with excellent health for a woman of my age and I can thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it.

"Since the Change of Life is over I have been a maternity nurse and being wholly self-supporting. I cannot over-estimate the value of good health. I have now earned a comfortable little home just by sewing and nursing. I have recommended the Compound to many with good results, as it is excellent to take before and after childbirth."

GOV. WILLSON IS EXPECTED TO CARRY FAYETTE COUNTY

Beckham Is Not Particularly Popular There Because His Adherents Are Responsible For the State Fair Being Taken Away From Lexington and Located in Louisville.

DR. BEN L. BRUNER'S NAME CON-NECTED WITH NEXT GOVERNORSHIP

(Lexington Leader.)

With the election only ten days off much speculation is being indulged in here as to how Lexington and Fayette county will "go" in the long-term Senatorial race between the two ex-governors, Willson and Beckham.

Well-posted politicians hereabouts who are adept at forecasting which way the wind is blowing the political straws, whether they be Democrats or Republicans, shake their heads dubiously when mention is made of Beckham carrying the county, and in fact there is such little Beckham enthusiasm here that it is conceded by some Democrats that he will not have a "look-in."

On the other hand, the Republicans confidently predict that Willson has the best of the situation, and will poll more votes in Lexington and Fayette county than his Democratic opponent. It is cited that Mr. Beckham is not popular with Fayette county Democrats, who hold it against him that the State Fair was taken away from Lexington and removed to Louisville by Beckham adherents. Again it is cited that he is "the temperance candidate," which is repugnant to many of the voters who as was shown in the recent local option election, favor the "wet" instead of the "dry" side of this controversy.

Add to this the fact that some of the most powerful of the local Democratic leaders have never been ardent supporters of Mr. Beckham in the past and are not now, and it will be readily seen that there is good reason for the lack of enthusiasm over his candidacy, which is one of the noticeable features of the campaign here. In fact, judging from the expressions of the "boys in the trenches," who are the ones who do the voting, Mr. Beckham has a very slender following in Fayette county, and the prediction is freely made that he will not carry the county, but that Governor Willson will get a surprisingly large vote, enough to insure him a safe majority here over Mr. Beckham.

Usually Fayette county rolls up a Democratic majority of from 1,500 to 1,600, but those who have been making a careful survey of the situation insist that this time the Republicans will turn the tables on the Democrats and that Mr. Willson will walk away with a comfortable majority of the votes cast here. Those who are prone to betting on elections are said to be shy about taking the Beckham end of the wager which is another pretty good criterion of what may be expected.

Dr. Ben L. Bruner, of Louisville, spoke to a good audience in the Courthouse at Beattyville Friday afternoon, and injected a lot of enthusiasm into the campaign in Lee county. Captain J. M. Beatty, the veteran Republican leader of Lee county, was Chairman of the meeting, and Judge H. L. Wheeler, the county campaign chairman, introduced Doctor Bruner to the audience.
The workingmen of Beattyville and vicinity, like their fellows in other sections of Eastern Kentucky, are feeling the effects of the Democratic administration's war on industry and they will take particular pains to register their protests at the polls November 3.
Speaking of Dr. Bruner, gossip is beginning to connect his name with the Republican gubernatorial nomination next year. His friends believe he will prove a winning candidate, largely on account of his connection with the leading business interests of the Falls City.

Ex-Governor Augustus E. Willson, Republican nominee for United States Senator, is receiving a most enthusiastic reception on his speaking tour in the towns up the C. & O., east of Lexington. Friday he addressed the voters of Clark county at Winchester, the crowd filling the Court House and giving him most earnest attention. Judge L. Le Bristow, Republican nominee for Congress in this district followed Governor Willson, making an excellent impression. From Winchester, Governor Willson went to Olive Hill, where he addressed a large crowd of working people at that industrial center Saturday afternoon, and last night the voters of Montgomery county turned out en-masse to hear him at Mt. Sterling in the interest of his candidacy. Governor Willson is making as active and as energetic campaign as he did when he ran for Governor seven years ago and was elected, and he is as confident now as he was then.

The Democratic State Campaign managers, who are evidently frightened at the apathy in the party throughout the State, are now imploping United States Senator Ollie M. James to drop everything and to come over in Mac-donia and help save the State for Beckham. Senator James has not yet hearkened to the S. O. S. signal, but it is expected that he will, and upon the hope that he will State Chairman Rhea and his assistants have been busy ing dates for the whirlwind speaking "Democratic Special" train and making dates for the whirlwind speaking campaign in which "Big Ollie" is expected to stir up the animals with his lurid brand of oratory and make a last final effort to get out the vote. It is planned to have this special leave Louisville next Wednesday morning with Senator James, Senator Camden, Governor McCreary, Lieutenant Governor McDermott, Attorney General Garnett and other leading Democrats on board, and swing through Western Kentucky for two days, and during the remainder of the week make a similar vote-getting expedition to Central and Eastern Kentucky. Senator James will, of course, be the chief spell-binder on the "special," but the others will, of course, take a turn at the bellows as occasion demands. But from reports that come from the provinces it will take more than campaign oratory to rally the apathetic and disgruntled voters to the Beckham standard.

Hon. Ed. P. Morrow will speak at Versailles Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the interest of the Republican ticket. Judge Bristow, the Republican nominee for Congress, will be present and have something to say.
Judge Bristow will also speak at La-Grange Monday afternoon.

Congressman A. Owsley Stanley is a versatile genius, and evidently he lives in the time-honored adage, "When in Rome, Do as the Romans Do." It will be recalled that it has not been a great while ago by the almanac since Honorable Mr. Stanley was parading over the State with his megaphone voice telling the voters what a misfit Governor Beckham had been and what an awful calamity it would be to the State of Kentucky and the Democratic party to send him to the United States Senate. And the funny part about it was he found many people ready to believe what he said and applaud his utterances to the echo. As a proof of his marvelous versatility of talent this same Honorable Mr. Stanley down at Carrollton last Monday took the stump and lauded Mr. Beckham and the whole Democratic ticket and announced that he was for Mr. Beckham "tooth and toenail." Mr. Stanley is entitled to not only the cake, but the entire bakery as a political acrobat.

That the Progressives are "coming back home" to the Republican party, as Governor Willson has found in his recent speaking tour of the State is further evidenced from this paragraph from the Louisville Times, which is a dyed-in-the-wool Democratic paper, and would be only too glad to chronicle a division in the ranks, if such actually existed. "What is Left of the Bull Moose movement in Kentucky seems to be going to pieces so fast that it would not be surprising, according to well-informed political 'doctors,' to see the remnant of the 'antlered' outfit desert their 'party' before election day.
Some few of the Moose have elected the Republicans so much that to get even they will vote the Democratic ticket, but the most of the erstwhile Roosevelt followers are expected to be found singly ensconced within the 'log cabin' when the 'blow-off' comes on November 3. In this they are not following the Democratic campaign managers a little bit, for they have anticipated such a move for some time and made their fight accordingly."

Bourbon county, Kentucky, covets the honor of furnishing President Woodrow Wilson his Thanksgiving turkey, judging from the following advertisement which appeared yesterday in the columns of the Paris Democrat:
"Wanted—The largest young turkey gobbler in Bourbon county for President Wilson's Thanksgiving dinner.
Call 77, either phone."

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles.
I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework."

The least amount of work tired me Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the
